Hi Melody,

Yes, I'll take whatever time is available, the phone conference works perfectly for me.

I do need to know: Has Attorney Sara reviewed my case file and emails yet? Has any work started? My ex-husband is an attorney with significant family resources, and they're actively strategizing.

Thursday feels like a long time from now, and I need to make sure I have representation that's already engaged with my case.

I should also mention that my former attorney seems to think he's still handling this, which is creating confusion.

I'm very grateful for your help, but I need to know where things stand so I can make informed decisions about how to proceed.

Please feel free to call me directly at 310-384-8404 or 626-348-3039 if you can't reach me by email my Wi-Fi at this house is unreliable.

Thank you,
Nuha
