
Subject: HYPEBEAST on Instagram: "From 'Breaking Bad' to 'Pluribus,' happiness is the new danger. @appletv has released the first trailer for Vince Gilligan's newest show, a new dark sci-fi series, starring Better Call Saul's Rhea Seehorn. The story follows Carol, "the most miserable person on Earth," who's tasked with saving the world from an epidemic of forced happiness. The trailer teases a strange contagion spreading across humanity, with Carol appearing to be the only one immune. Also starring Karolina Wydra and Carlos-Manuel Vesga, Pluribus marks Vince Gilligan's first project outside the Breaking Bad universe. The two-season series premieres with two episodes on November 7 on Apple TV. Photo: Apple TV"
