

Finding #2: Political Corruption & Bribery

---

Source: San Bernardino County Sentinel

- Article: “Jet Room Dispensary Proponent Paid Kerr $35K For Project Permits”
  - Date: September 13, 2019
-

Key Findings

1. CEO of Green Holdings Group: Freddy Sayegh was the CEO of Green Holdings Group, which was involved with the Jet Room Dispensary.
  2. $35,000 Bribery Scheme: The owner of the Jet Room, David Serrano, paid $35,000 in bribes to Adelanto Mayor Rich Kerr for permits and licenses.
  3. Ongoing Misrepresentation: The article, published in late 2019, still refers to Freddy as “an attorney,” confirming his ongoing misrepresentation nearly four years after his disbarment.
  4. Direct Connection: Freddy’s role as CEO of the dispensary’s partner company directly connects him to this political corruption and bribery scheme.
-

Conclusion

Freddy Sayegh was not just a disbarred lawyer; he was the CEO of a company involved in a documented $35,000 political bribery scheme, further proving a pattern of organized criminal activity.