19 5. My previous attempts to resolve these matters informally have been met with evasion and 20 hostility. On September 15, 2025, a prior attempt to address these issues was rejected, causing 21 significant personal and familial strain. I am concerned that providing notice now, before a court
22 order is in place, will be seen by the respondents not as a legal formality, but as a final warning
23 to eliminate any incriminating evidence.

24
25 6. Therefore, a good cause exception to the notice requirement is necessary to protect the 26 integrity of the evidence and prevent the irreparable harm that would result from its destruction.
