1 demonstrably false. Evidence: The Covered California Application (Exhibit A) unequivocally lists
2 Petitioner as the Primary Contact. Legal Significance: Only the Primary Contact has the authority to
3 terminate coverage. Petitioner NUHA SAYEGH possessed no such authority.

4
5 The Harm: Respondent terminated the children's coverage effective November 30, 2025, then made
6 false statements to the child to shift blame, leaving the minor children uninsured for over thirteen
7 days.

8 III. UNDISCLOSED FINANCIAL RESOURCES

9 Respondent represented to this Court on November 19, 2025, that he lacked financial resources,
10 securing a $162/month payment plan. The Evidence: Within 96 hours of this representation,
11 Respondent transmitted $11,000 to Petitioner's former counsel, Kirk Kolodji (Exhibit B). Analysis:
12 It is mathematically impossible for an individual earning the declared $8,000/month gross income to 13 generate $11,000 in disposable liquid cash within four days of pleading inability to pay. Conclusion:
14 This demonstrates the existence of undisclosed, accessible cash reserves derived from Respondent's
15 business operations, including Green Holdings Group and Perfected Claims LLC.

16 IV. CONCLUSION AND RELIEF REQUESTED

17 The documentary evidence establishes that Respondent has made material misrepresentations to this 18 Court regarding his financial condition and has made false statements to the minor children regarding 19 matters directly affecting their welfare. Petitioner respectfully requests immediate appointment of a 20 Receiver over Green Holdings Group and Perfected Claims LLC to prevent further dissipation of 21 community assets and to protect the minor children.

22 Respectfully submitted,
