Eric, I read the mail that you sent Heidi and I'm very disturbed. I don't understand where all of this is coming from. Remember the day, it was the 19th of May, because it was the day after mom's funeral we all sat together me you Heidi and Nuha and I asked you clearly if it was okay if I sold the car and all this money was going to go towards Mom's bills and Mom's debt and you said go ahead and do whatever you want. You even offered that we keep the money and I said no we want to put it all towards Mom's bills. That's why we transferred everything from the sale to Dad's account, his Chase account but now I just want to give it to you. Can you please tell me if you have a trust account that you set up so I can send it to you? To be honest I'm very disturbed about the turn of what is happening, I don't understand we're brothers and sisters and Mom would not be happy with this I think she trusted you and really thought that you loved us so much and her that this would never happen. Please let me know your trust account and I would like to transfer all of the money and put everything in your court I will not be trying to pay any more bills or her debt or anything so this will all be your responsibility. I know you are the trustee but I was just trying to help. I love you. Shay
