MIA: Good. How are you?

DEPUTY: Good. Is dad home?

MIA: Oh yeah, he's in his room.

DEPUTY: At this room?

MIA: He's sleeping.

DEPUTY: Can you wake him up please?

MIA: (Steps away to wake her father) Dad. Dad. Dad, there's police here.

FAHED: Huh?

MIA: Police.

FAHED: Police?

MIA: I don’t know. I just heard loud knocking and I went out and there were police.

[00:00:34]

FAHED: (Walking to the door) Hi, sir.

DEPUTY: Hey, do you have a sec real quick?

FAHED: Sure. I’ll put some clothes on.

MIA: Hey, Dad, why, Dad, why are the police here?

FAHED: I don’t know.

MIA: Why are the police here?

FAHED: I don’t know.

DEPUTY: How you doing, sir? Can I help you?

FAHED: Yeah.

DEPUTY: Do you have a sec real quick?

FAHED: Sure. Do you want to come outside? It’s a little loud here.

DEPUTY: Sure.

[00:01:14]

FAHED: Oh, sure, sure, sure. Why don’t you guys go in my room?

DEPUTY: I’m gonna have him stay with both of them. Just for right now.

FAHED: My child?

DEPUTY: Yeah, I’m gonna have him stay with both of them. I’ll tell you why in a second.

FAHED: Oh, sure.

MIA: Dad, can we go in your room?

FAHED: He didn't say here if you just want to close the door I'll talk to you real quick.

DEPUTY: Sure. Just, you can both just sit on the dresser.

MIA: No, I’m gonna go in the front.

FAHED: Okay. (Door closes)

[00:02:12]

DEPUTY: How are you?

MIA: Good. How are you?

DEPUTY: Good. Mia?

MIA: Yeah.

DEPUTY: How old are you?

MIA: I’m 13.

DEPUTY: 13? Cool. Where do you go to school?

MIA: I go to Elliot, but temporarily we're at McKinley.

DEPUTY: McKinley?

MIA: Yeah. He goes to Altadena, but temporarily he's at Allendale.

DEPUTY: Yeah. How you doing, big guy?

JORDAN: Good.

DEPUTY: Good. You okay tonight? How old are you?

JORDAN: Wait. Six.

MIA: Six.

[00:03:15]

JORDAN: (Discussion of Christmas gifts, an Xbox, and a "double claw" toy).

DEPUTY: Are you guys on vacation right now from school?

MIA: Yeah, we have until Monday.

DEPUTY: Nice. How long does it last, like two weeks, three weeks?

MIA: Three weeks.

[00:04:45]

DEPUTY: So when your uncle came over, what did you guys do, just hang out or...?

MIA: Um, basically, he was like sleeping for like...

JORDAN: 24 hours.

MIA: Like, no, like he was sleeping for hours.

DEPUTY: Because he sleeps a lot?

MIA: No, he was sleeping for hours. We went, me, my dad and we went to see Indiana and what's the other one?

JORDAN: Oh, Alabama.

MIA: Indiana, Alabama. At the Rose Bowl. It was really fun.

JORDAN: When we came in, it smelled like fried fish.

DEPUTY: It smelled like what?

JORDAN: Fried fish.

MIA: Fried fish.

JORDAN: Mm-hmm.

[00:06:12]

DEPUTY: So what, did your, is your uncle still here or...?

MIA: He left like a few hours ago.

DEPUTY: Oh, he did? Oh, okay. And when your uncle was here, he was just sleeping?

MIA: He was sleeping. He was a little weird.

JORDAN: Acting very weird.

DEPUTY: Why? Like how?

MIA: Um, I don't know how but we're all moving.

JORDAN: Sleeps, like, sometimes he sleeps for 24 hours.

DEPUTY: 24 hours? When I'm not working, I can sleep for 24 hours.

MIA: Um, he was in like a really weird manner.

DEPUTY: In how? Like his mood, the way he was talking or something?

MIA: Like talk, he was very touchy too.

DEPUTY: Touchy, like how touchy?

MIA: Like, like he would say, um, like this was just this morning. He was always like, "Oh come, like sit next to me," and like the, do you kind of get the concept?

[00:08:45]

DEPUTY: Is it all you guys and your dad that live here or...?

MIA: Yeah, it's just us.

DEPUTY: Oh, okay. How long has it, how long have you guys lived here?

MIA: Um, I mean, we've lived here like our whole lives. I like it here.

DEPUTY: And when your uncle comes over, does he stay over for like a couple days or...?

MIA: Um, usually doesn't like come over here. I mean, he does, but like he won't like sleep over. But then like if he's like here, he'll like eventually sleep over... because my dad's parents, they're staying in a house because their house burnt down from the fire.

[00:11:50]

MIA: Dad, we're done talking.

FAHED: Hey, Caleb. You finished talking?

DEPUTY: Let me finish real quick. Um, were you waiting for us to get here?

MIA: What?

DEPUTY: Were you waiting for us to get here? Did you know we were coming?

MIA: Um, yeah, my mom...

DEPUTY: How'd you know?

MIA: Because I called my mom.

DEPUTY: Why'd you call your mom?

MIA: Um, because like my dad, he didn't really like let us like talk to my mom in a way.

DEPUTY: He what?

MIA: He didn't really let me and my brother talk to my mom.

DEPUTY: Why wouldn't he let you talk to your mom?

MIA: He didn't really tell me. He was just like, "Oh, I just want to have like quality time with you guys."

[00:13:10]

DEPUTY: Okay. So he is your dad, all right. He can tell you no phone time right now... just because your dad says you can't have phone time doesn't mean he's trying to be mean. I know they have their issues. I was here when it went down... There's a lot of stuff you don't know.

[00:13:30]

DEPUTY: But I just want you to know, like, when you call or when your mom calls us or when you call us, you know, it's not something that we take lightly. We have to take it seriously. All right. So when you call the police saying something like you're afraid of your dad... regardless if that's how you said it or you didn't say that, can be bad because then we have to take you from this house and we have to take you somewhere, not to your mom, not to your dad, to a stranger's house and they're gonna have to watch over you until someone figures out what's happening. Okay. Because we have to make sure we do our job. And I don't want that to be a mistake or someone put words in your mouth and that's what we have to do.

[00:14:15]

DEPUTY: Has anybody touched you inapproperly or anything like that?

MIA: Um, words? Maybe like gestures?

DEPUTY: Gestures? Okay. Um, what do you mean like gestures?

MIA: Um, it was more towards like my uncle when he was here. It was just like kind of weird. Looking at you weird?

MIA: Yeah.

DEPUTY: But as far as that, like gestures, looking at you weird. He hasn't touched you or anything. Not that far. All right.

[00:15:30]

DEPUTY: And how do you, do you feel safe living here?

MIA: I would say somewhat.

DEPUTY: Somewhat is still, it's still good enough. Again, you're gonna have to make the most of this. You're gonna be bouncing between both homes.

[00:17:40]

DEPUTY: I'm going to give this to you, okay? This is for you, you can hold on to it. The number for our station is on here.

MIA: Thank you.

DEPUTY: ...don't let your parents use you guys as a weapon. Okay? Okay. If you have an issue with your dad, tell your dad.

[00:18:43]

DEPUTY: (Speaking to another officer) Oh, that was it. That was it. He just, uh, said that her uncle was here earlier... he was, I guess, being weird. (To Mia) Well, no, you're gonna, I mean, you're a girl, you're gonna get older, you're gonna see that guys are gonna get a lot more creepier too. Okay. Not just uncles but everybody, every guy out there is gonna be a weirdo. All right. So stay away from those ones.

[00:19:30]

DEPUTY: Do you want to go back to your room or do you want to go see your dad?

MIA: Um, probably my dad.

DEPUTY: Okay. I'm gonna talk to your brother for a sec.

MIA: Um, the information stays like between like... majority that I said?

DEPUTY: Yes.

MIA: Like when you guys talk to my dad, is it going to... because I just...

DEPUTY: No. Um, from so what your mom, I'll tell you what your mom told us was that you and your brother don't feel safe being here because of the dad and your uncle. That's all. So I already told dad that part. Okay. Everything else that we've talked about, I'm not going to tell him.

[00:20:45]

MIA: Yeah, I don't know. I don't want to go...

JORDAN: Okay.

FAHED: Yeah, I'm almost done.

MIA: Okay.
