Potential Criminal Offenses (California)

1. Filing a False Police Report (PC §148.5)
   – Repeated false claims of domestic violence, abandonment, and child abuse.
2. Perjury (PC §118)
   – If she made false statements under oath in restraining order filings or to DCFS.
3. Forgery / Offering False Document (PC §§470, 115)
   – Sending unsigned or fraudulent court documents (restraining order paperwork) to your children's schools, misrepresenting court authority.
4. Child Custody Deprivation / Interference (PC §278.5)
   – Attempting to withhold the children from you by circulating false restraining orders and letters.
5. Extortion / Blackmail (PC §518)
   – Making false claims (e.g., that you are gay, or committing fraud in your community work) in order to coerce or pressure you.
6. Defrauding Another of Property by False Pretenses (PC §532)
   – Her cancer hoax to obtain money and property.
7. False Personation (PC §529)
   – If she impersonated court authority or represented herself falsely in communications with the schools.

🔷 Potential Civil Causes of Action

1. Defamation (Libel/Slander)
   – Repeated lies to relatives, schools, DCFS, police, and the community.
   – Statements accusing you of abuse, fraud, or homosexuality (if intended to harm reputation).
   – These are defamation per se (accusing someone of crimes or fraud).
2. Malicious Prosecution
   – False restraining order filings and criminal accusations that were dismissed in your favor.
3. Abuse of Process
   – Misuse of legal proceedings and restraining orders to harass and interfere with your parental rights.

4. Fraud & Deceit (Civ. Code §§1709–1710)
   – Fabricated cancer diagnosis, induced monetary payments, Cadillac purchase.

5. Conversion / Civil Theft
   – Wrongfully obtaining your money and property under false pretenses.

6. Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress (IIED)
   – Outrageous conduct (false arrests, fake restraining orders, humiliation in community, extortion).

7. Tortious Interference with Parental Rights
   – Sending fraudulent restraining orders to your children's schools, trying to block your access despite denial in court.

8. Tortious Interference with Business Relations / Economic Advantage
   – False public claims that you are "defrauding Altadena residents" intended to damage your professional and community reputation.

9. Extortion / Civil RICO Theory (if pattern exists)
   – If she systematically used lies, fraud, and threats to obtain money/property and damage your reputation.

🔷 Damages You Could Claim

- Economic:
  – Bail, attorney's fees, DV class costs, housing displacement, lost income, money fraudulently taken ($100k+).

- Non-economic:
  – Emotional distress, loss of reputation in community, harm to parent-child relationship.

- Punitive:
  – Available where malice, fraud, or oppression is proven (likely here).
