EXHIBIT A: CHATSWORTH CONFLICT ADMISSION

Case: Nuha Sayegh v. H. Bui Law Firm (Fee Arbitration) Document Type: Evidentiary Extract for Fee Arbitration Proceeding

SOURCE DOCUMENT:

- Contemporaneous detailed meeting notes from November 17, 2025
- Initial consultation between Nuha Sayegh and Sara Memari (H Bui Law Firm)
- Location: Chatsworth office meeting

EXTRACTED ADMISSION - SARA MEMARI (at approx. 9:29 minutes):

"I think he's gonna appear remotely. And just so you know, because I already had a hearing that I'm supposed to appear in Chatsworth for in person, so as to, unfortunately, appear remotely, our hearing, if you want to appear remotely too, so you don't have to go there and put in person, I can set that up."

==========

EVIDENTIARY SIGNIFICANCE FOR FEE ARBITRATION:

1. This statement was made TWO DAYS before Nuha's November 19, 2025 contested DVRO/custody hearing in Pasadena (Case No. 25PDFL01441).

2. Sara Memari disclosed she had a CONFLICTING in-person hearing in Chatsworth on the SAME DAY as Nuha's hearing.

3. Sara proactively steered Nuha toward remote appearance to accommodate Sara's OWN scheduling conflict - not for Nuha's benefit.

4. DIRECT CONSEQUENCE: On November 19, 2025:

    - Sara was NOT PRESENT at 8:30 AM when Nuha's hearing began
    - Sara emailed at 8:47 AM: "I have to finish my hearing in Chatsworth first"
    - Nuha could NOT testify (remote appearance requires prior court authorization)
    - Adverse custody modifications were entered without Nuha's testimony

APPLICABLE RULES VIOLATED:

- California Rules of Professional Conduct Rule 1.7 (Conflict of Interest)
- California Rules of Professional Conduct Rule 1.3 (Diligence)
- Business and Professions Code Section 6068(m) (Duty to Communicate)

RELEVANCE TO FEE DISPUTE:

The firm collected $7,500 retainer for representation that was compromised from Day 1 by a known scheduling conflict. Client is entitled to full refund of remaining balance (~$2,969.77) as services were not rendered with competence or diligence as required by the Rules of Professional Conduct.

========== Prepared: December 6, 2025 For use in: State Bar Fee Arbitration Proceeding