DECLARATION OF ERIC B. JONES

Regarding Telephonic Conferences and Unauthorized Practice of Law

I, Eric B. Jones, declare as follows:

1. I am over the age of eighteen and have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein. If called as a witness, I could and would testify competently thereto.

2. I serve as the authorized representative and support person for Nuha Sayegh in the matter of In re Marriage of Sayegh. In this capacity, I was present for and participated in numerous telephonic conferences with Ms. Sayegh's former counsel, Kirk A. Kolodji, and his associate, Sean Kolodji.

3. October 14, 2025 Telephonic Conference:

    - On October 14, 2025, I participated in a telephonic conference with Nuha Sayegh regarding her legal representation.
    - During this call, I witnessed Ms. Sayegh express extreme frustration regarding the lack of professional documentation provided by Mr. Kolodji's firm.
    - I personally heard Ms. Sayegh state: "The day before the hearing, you don't have the fing client be asking around for money... trying to figure st out... Send me the fing contract. Kirk... sends me something that doesn't really, it's wishy wash[y]... it's completely unprofessional."
    - This statement was made contemporaneously with the events and reflects the chaotic nature of the financial demands placed upon the client immediately prior to critical hearings.

4. Observation of Unauthorized Practice of Law (Sean Kolodji):

    - During my interactions with the firm, I participated in case review sessions where an individual identified as Sean Kolodji (respondent's brother) led the discussion and provided substantive legal analysis.
    - In a session designated as "Restraining Order Case Review," I heard Sean Kolodji perform the following legal tasks:
        - Legal Analysis: He critiqued the structure of the opposing party's filings, stating: "And the problem with the structure... I'm reading it, and I'm like, oh, there's something more."

        - Motion Critique: He evaluated the sufficiency of the pleadings, stating: "The problem is in the moving papers... the application doesn't really make the argument effectively."
        - Strategic Direction: He directed the case strategy, stating: "We're going to focus on the things that... her story needs to be told."
    - At no time did Kirk Kolodji disavow Sean Kolodji's statements or indicate that Sean was merely a clerical assistant. Sean Kolodji operated with the authority of an attorney or high-level paralegal, despite my subsequent verification finding no California State Bar license or paralegal certification for him.

5. October 6, 2025 Initial Consultation:

    - During the initial consultation on October 6, 2025, I heard Kirk Kolodji state: "my brother is working on getting kind of an updated or just getting, kind of a groundwork for an updated, sort of supplemental declaration."
    - This statement confirmed that Sean Kolodji was actively drafting legal declarations for client signature, a substantive legal task.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on November 28, 2025, at Temple City, California.
