Subject: Re: Partial Refund - Reservation of Rights - Sayegh Matter From: Eric Jones & Nuha Sayegh To: info@hbuilaw.com Cc: sara@hbuilaw.com Date: December 4, 2025

Ms. Bui,

We are in receipt of the partial refund of $4,530.23.

This amount is being applied as a strict partial credit against the initial retainer of $7,500.00 paid on November 4, 2025.

Given the immediate financial damages caused by your firm's negligence—specifically the Chatsworth scheduling conflict that resulted in the loss of the home occupancy order—we are utilizing these funds immediately to mitigate those housing damages.

For the record: Our acceptance and deposit of these funds does NOT constitute a waiver of claims, nor does it constitute full satisfaction of the dispute. We expressly reserve all rights to pursue the remaining balance of the $7,500.00 via Mandatory Fee Arbitration and civil remedies.

Furthermore, as this refund does not cure the ethical violations regarding Competence (Rule 1.1) and Conflict of Interest (Rule 1.7), the filed State Bar complaint remains active.

Regards,

Eric Jones & Nuha Sayegh
