I'm reaching out briefly to offer a resource that may be helpful if the court raises questions about Kirk Kolodji's fee reasonableness during the hearing. I want to be respectful of your custody and support strategy and only provide this as an optional tool. CONTEXT: I conducted a systematic billing audit of Kirk's $16,306 fee motion and identified $8,130-$10,380 in unjustified fees across six violation categories, including charges related to his unlicensed brother, Sean Kolodji. If your focus is entirely on custody and support—which are clearly the most critical priorities—please focus entirely on what matters most. However, if the court specifically inquires about fee reasonableness, this audit provides documented evidence that may justify a substantial fee reduction to the justified range of $6,000-$8,000. AVAILABILITY: I'm available by phone (626) 348-3019 or email through 8:15 AM if you'd like to discuss or if you need any materials forwarded immediately. Wishing you clarity and success in today's hearing. Best regards, Eric Brakebill Jones Chief Domestic Violence Advocate Recovery Compass eric@recovery-compass.org (626) 348-3019
