I, NUHA SAYEGH, declare:

1. On January 15, 2026, Respondent hosted a 'party' for our daughter Mia immediately following a contentious court hearing. This event was held at the home of our neighbor, Nipa Gupta Cook.

2. During this event, Ms. Cook, who is a Deputy District Attorney, questioned my 13-year-old daughter regarding her disclosures of drug use ('fried fish' smell) and inappropriate touching by Respondent's brother. This occurred without my consent or presence.

3. Respondent is attempting to claim I 'coached' Mia to make these claims on January 14. This is demonstrably false.

4. I am in possession of a forensic audio recording made by Mia Sayegh on January 2, 2026—two weeks prior—during a police welfare check. In this recording, Mia spontaneously reports the 'Fried Fish' chemical odor and her father's erratic behavior to law enforcement.

5. This recording proves the abuse allegations are Mia's lived reality, not coached testimony, and predate the interference of Respondent's agents.
