Mr. Kolodji,

I am writing regarding the $11,000 payment you received via Zelle from Fahed Sayegh in November 2025.

We have documented that you accepted these funds from the opposing party in the dissolution matter Sayegh v. Sayegh immediately after your termination as Nuha Sayegh's counsel. Furthermore, these funds were transferred just 96 hours after Mr. Sayegh claimed "indigency" in court.

As a party investigating this transaction for fraud and civil conspiracy, I am formally notifying you that these funds are disputed assets.

DEMAND FOR PRESERVATION: Do not dissipate, transfer, or spend this $11,000. We assert these funds were improperly transferred from community assets or constitute an improper benefit from an adverse party. This money is considered material evidence and the subject of future disgorgement claims.

Any dissipation of these specific funds after this notice will be treated as willful spoliation of evidence and conversion.
