1. JURISDICTION & PROCEDURAL POSTURE: On January 14, 2026, this Court noted that safety concerns regarding the children could not be heard during the 'Progress Report' hearing and invited Petitioner to 'file a Request for Order' to address these changes (Minute Order, Jan 14). Petitioner files this Emergency RFO in direct response to that instruction.

2. EMERGENCY CHANGED CIRCUMSTANCE (JAN 15, 2026): Less than 24 hours after the hearing, Respondent escalated his conduct by subjecting the minor child, Mia Sayegh (13), to an 'Interrogation Party' at the home of Nipa Gupta Cook (Deputy District Attorney).

3. WITNESS TAMPERING: During this event, the child was interrogated regarding her confidential disclosures of drug manufacturing ('Fried Fish'/Methamphetamine) and abuse. This conduct constitutes Constructive Witness Tampering under Penal Code § 136.1.

4. RELIEF REQUESTED: Immediate suspension of Respondent's visitation or, alternatively, Professional Supervision Only. Respondent has demonstrated he uses his custodial time to pressure the children to recant evidence.
