Group, PLC, not personal income. That entity is being wound down; it has no active clients, no ongoing revenue, and no [redacted] www.thefoxxfirm.com) has been taken offline, and its [redacted] permanently closed." The Foxx Law Group, PLC continues to show ordinary wind-down expenses—e.g., payroll/contractor costs, rent, utilities, insurance, software/subscriptions, bookkeeping/accounting, taxes/filing fees, office supplies, postage/courier, and equipment depreciation—until its books and taxes are finalized and the entity is closed.

Respondent also knows I have been suspended from the practice of law and cannot rely on attorney earnings. She further knows I do not own any Culver City property and do not receive rent from such property, and that I do not own the Woodbury location; to the contrary, I pay rent there (it was my former law-office space).

Insurance Reimbursements and Disaster-Response Activity

Counsel misidentifies several checks as "income" when, in fact, they are insurance reimbursements from State Farm totaling $62,527.73 for documented Eaton Fires losses (January rent from such property, and that I do not own the Woodbury location; to the contrary, I pay rent there (it was my former law-office space).

Insurance Reimbursements and Disaster-Response Activity

Counsel misidentifies several checks as "income" when, in fact, they are insurance reimbursements from State Farm totaling $62,527.73 for documented Eaton Fires losses (January 7, 2025), including fire and smoke damage remediation, roof and fence repair, pool rust damage, spoiled food, and household-item losses. These were reimbursements for expenses I had already advanced; they are not earnings or profit distributions. (See Exhibits A1: State Farm claim summaries, contractor invoices/receipts, and corresponding bank statements tying each reimbursement to the loss.)

Emergency Operations; 80+ Eaton Fire Events; In-Process Reconciliation

Respondent erroneously alleges checks issued to a corporation are income. The checks issued