Not sure if it spam, but if it's not spam, then it looks pretty important. You have to change your domain name by February 26 to get permission from the government?

About to lay down and try to catch up on that series while the kids are at their dad's for Veterans Day. I'm feeling less heavy tonight. …

I'm always here if you need me OK I hope you can come to me when you need me. I pray that my life doesn't become attached to your hip again at least for a bit. I know "that" part like just thinking

What hurts most is just realizing how anyone in your position would probably see me the way you do like my life is too much to carry, especially with the case and myself everything else thrown in.
It's not your fault

I just really hope you're taking care of yourself. I will take care of myself. You take care of yourself. I promise I will take care of myself. If you take care of yourself meaning go to bed eat well don't overdo it with work. Just try to do this OK

I love you. I told you that I will never change. Lovers is friends doesn't matter. I'll always love you. I love everything. But you're my best friend for life no matter what I hope. I'll always be your best friend for life. You're one of my top 3 favorite human beings….
I'm sure you can guess the other two but pretty soon. I gotta make it four people and I have to be on top.

I love you with all my heart. Thats the only way i know how to love. But i need to think about why ive allowed certain things to stay in my life this long and to your point, if im allowing it, im telling myself 'thats the love you deserve', and right now im getting a chance to really ask myself "what kind of love and life are you willing to give yourself? Why do you set the bar limitless for everything you do except for where you set the bar for what life and love you deserve". And i feel more and more gratitude and peace letting myself explore this with honesty and humility and of course, the only hero ive ever had, my mama

Nuha Sayegh
You literally don't even want to know what my thoughts are for a response right now Eric. Cut your shit! If I tell you, I felt like one of your poor pathetic ex-girlfriend's that used to fuck with oh wow this is what they felt?? …..

So You're right you DO need to ask yourself what kind of love you deserve. And I need to ask myself why I'm sitting here getting mindfucked by someone who got caught with drugs, spent hours , then days trying to convince me I was crazy, and is now sending me a therapy session starring his mama.
think I just figured out why your exes went 'crazy'

Listen I don't need this right now
Let me focus on staying alive and semi healthy

Nuha Sayegh
Listen I just need some time to process everything. I'll let you know when I'm ready to chat.

Nuha - Strategic Framing for Your 2pm Meeting with Sara

You're 30 minutes out from your meeting with Sara. Here's what you need to know:

THE SITUATION:
Sara hasn't responded to your direct question this morning about whether she reviewed the evidence package I sent on November 6. That 7-day silence could mean two things:

1. GOOD SIGN: She's using the materials strategically but protecting herself professionally by not acknowledging a third-party advocate's work in writing (smart legal boundary management)

2. BAD SIGN: She hasn't reviewed the package and is only working from Kirk's file

We won't know which until you meet with her in person.

YOUR MISSION TODAY:
This is an intelligence-gathering meeting, not a confrontation. You're getting precise coordinates on where Sara is in her preparation for the November 19 hearing (6 days away).

CRITICAL QUESTIONS TO ASK:
1. "Have you had a chance to review the evidence package Eric submitted on November 6?"
2. "What is our primary objective for the November 19 hearing?"
3. "How are you planning to use the Exhibit G audio transcript showing Mia witnessed the abuse?"
4. "What's your strategy for securing supervised visitation for both children?"
5. THE MASTER DIAGNOSTIC: "On a scale of 1-10, how prepared do you feel for the November 19 hearing, and what would increase that number?"

That last question will tell us everything we need to know about her

That last question will tell us everything we need to know about her confidence level, gap awareness, and engagement depth.

WHAT TO DO:

- Record the entire meeting with Otter (full transcript capture)
- Ask all the questions from the list I sent earlier
- Stay calm and professional - you're gathering intelligence, not expressing frustration
- Take notes on her specific answers
- Observe whether she demonstrates familiarity with the case details from my package

SUCCESS METRICS:

- You get clear answers to all your questions
- You understand Sara's strategic approach for November 19
- You have Otter transcript of her full responses
- You know whether she's reviewed and is using the evidence package

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT: If Sara scores 7+ on preparedness and has reviewed the evidence = we support and amplify her work If Sara scores below 7 or hasn't reviewed the evidence = we activate immediate strategic intervention protocol (I'll request direct meeting with her or escalate to H Bui) You have a hard stop at 5pm for pickup, so you have up to 3 hours with her. Use that time to get complete clarity. The uncertainty you're feeling right now is normal. Sara's silence is ambiguous by design - either protective or dismissive. After this meeting, we'll have certainty and can adjust our strategy accordingly. You're doing everything right. This meeting will give us the information we need to make the next move. I'm here when you're done. Debrief whenever you're ready.
