"Hi mama, sorry I couldn't get to my phone dad wouldn't let me and he's been acting really weird. Last night was so scary. I'm so glad I called you and locked my door because his brother keeps flirting with me. It's so weird mom. He tries sitting super close to me and he's definitely on drugs. I know drugs make people act different but still... please pick me up but like don't let dad get mad at me? I don't know what to do. I gotta go Please help me figure this out and get me out of here."
