SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA

COUNTY OF MONTEREY – PROBATE DIVISION

Estate of: JUDY BRAKEBILL JONES, aka JUDY LEE JONES, Decedent.	Case No. 25PR000590 EX PARTE APPLICATION FOR SUSPENSION OF POWERS (PROB. CODE § 9614) [FIRST AMENDED – CORRECTED HEARING DATE PER CLERK ORDER]

Date: February 18, 2026 (Wednesday)

Time: 8:30 AM

Dept: 13

Judge: Hon. Elisabeth K. Mineta

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE OF THE SUPERIOR COURT:

Petitioner Eric Brakebill Jones ("Petitioner") hereby applies Ex Parte for an Order suspending the powers of Heidi Jones Blanchard ("Respondent") and appointing Petitioner as Special Administrator with General Powers under the Independent Administration of Estates Act (IAEA) to preserve the Estate.

I. BASIS FOR EX PARTE RELIEF (THE EXIGENCY)

This Application is based on the urgent need to prevent further waste and dissipation of Estate assets.

1. Ongoing Insolvency (The "Mule Transaction"):

Evidence confirms Respondent previously facilitated the unauthorized transfer of $10,985.00 in Estate cash to a third-party account lacking economic substance (Exhibit A, Chase Transaction #61). This established a pattern of dissipation. The Estate is currently unbonded against this risk.

2. Constructive Abandonment (The "Nexus"):

Respondent and her counsel have constructively abandoned the defense of the Estate, evidenced by their default on mandatory filing fees in the related appellate matter (Jones v. Superior Court, Case H054014) as of January 23, 2026 (Exhibit E).

3. Regulatory Conflict (State Bar Case #265071):

Respondent's counsel is currently the subject of a Priority 1 State Bar investigation regarding the misappropriation identified in Exhibit A. Consequently, the Fiduciary is effectively unrepresented.

4. Waste:

The Real Property is the sole remaining asset. Without the immediate appointment of a Special Administrator to list and sell the property, the Estate faces irreparable harm from tax defaults, insurance lapses, and market decline.

II. MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

A. THE COURT MUST SUSPEND POWERS TO PREVENT "FUTURE" HARM (PROB. CODE § 9614)

Probate Code § 9614 mandates suspension if "it appears to the court that the personal representative has wasted... or is about to do so."

The standard is predictive. The "Mule Transaction" (Exhibit A) proves the propensity to dissipate assets. The "Appellate Default" (Exhibit E) proves the incapacity to manage legal duties. Combined, these facts demonstrate that the Respondent is "about to" allow the Estate to collapse through neglect or further dissipation. The "staleness" of the initial theft is irrelevant; the unbonded risk creates a fresh emergency every day the Respondent remains in power.

B. APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL ADMINISTRATOR IS NECESSARY (PROB. CODE § 8540)

Under Estate of Feeney (1983), the Court has inherent power to appoint a Special Administrator to preserve the estate when the current representative is paralyzed or compromised.

Here, the Estate is leaderless. The Respondent has defaulted in the Court of Appeal. Her counsel is conflicted (State Bar #265071). Immediate appointment of Petitioner as Special Administrator with General Powers (Prob. Code § 8544) is the only mechanism to secure the Real Property, list it for sale, and deposit proceeds into a blocked account, thereby curing the risk.

III. DECLARATION OF ERIC BRAKEBILL JONES

I, Eric Brakebill Jones, declare:

1. The Property:

The asset at risk is 17742 Berta Canyon Road, Salinas, CA. It is currently unoccupied.

2. Evidence of Dissipation (Exhibit A):

Attached as Exhibit A is a Chase Bank receipt showing the deposit of $10,985.00 (vehicle sale proceeds) into a third-party account ending in #9872 on May 22, 2025. These funds were diverted from the Trust.

3. Evidence of Admission (Exhibit B):

Attached as Exhibit B is a letter from Nicora Law dated June 27, 2025, admitting possession of these funds, which contradicts their subsequent Verified Petition.

4. Evidence of Abandonment (Exhibit E):

Attached as Exhibit E is the "Notice of Default" from the Court of Appeal (Case H054014) dated Jan 23, 2026. This confirms Respondent’s counsel has ceased legal defense of the Estate.

5. Necessity:

I request appointment as Special Administrator to list the property immediately. I agree to hold all net proceeds in a Court-Blocked Account.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on February 13, 2026, at Temple City, California.

IV. DECLARATION REGARDING NOTICE (CRC 3.1204)

I, Eric Brakebill Jones, declare:

1. Notice Given:

On Friday, February 13, 2026, by 5:00 PM, I gave ex parte notice to opposing counsel, Albert J. Nicora and Michael Atteridge, via electronic service (email) at anicora@nicoralaw.com and maatteridge@nicoralaw.com. I attached a copy of this Application and informed them the matter would be heard on Wednesday, February 18, 2026, at 8:30 AM in Dept 13.

2. No Opposition Expected:

I do not expect an appearance. Counsel has ceased communication and defaulted on the related appellate matter (Exhibit E). Furthermore, Counsel has a direct conflict of interest regarding the evidence of asset dissipation (Exhibit A) and is the subject of State Bar Investigation #265071 regarding the same.

3. Exigency:

Immediate suspension is required because notice to the Respondent of a "removal" action presents a severe risk that remaining liquid assets will be dissipated before a hearing can be held (CRC 3.1204(b)(3)).

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

ERIC BRAKEBILL JONES

[PROPOSED] ORDER
