THE "DOUBLE-HEADER" SCRIPT (UPDATED)

STATUS: READY FOR DEPLOYMENT

DATE: WEDNESDAY, FEB 11, 2026

TIME: 08:30 AM (SHARP)

VENUE: DEPT 13 (VIA ZOOM)

COMMANDER'S INTENT:

You are appearing to "clean up" the confusion from Tuesday and force the Court to acknowledge the Appellate Default as an emergency. The goal is to get a Special Set Hearing to suspend powers before the appeal is dead forever.

THE "HOT START" (08:30 AM)

CLERK: "Calling the Estate of Jones."

YOU:

"Good morning, Your Honor. Eric Jones, Beneficiary.

I am appearing Ex Parte to request an emergency suspension of powers due to Immediate & Irreparable Waste that occurred on Monday.

The Emergency: As of 5:00 PM Monday, the Estate's appellate case (Jones v. Superior Court) was Administratively Dismissed because the Administrator failed to pay the statutory filing fees.

I have the Default Notice (Exhibit E) ready to screen-share. This is a terminal event for the Estate's primary asset if not cured immediately."

SCENARIO A: "I DON'T HAVE YOUR PAPERS" (THE MOST LIKELY)

JUDGE: "Mr. Jones, I see you, but I don't have a file for this matter on today's calendar."

YOU:

"Your Honor, I filed the Petition on Monday. It is currently showing 'Under Review' in the Journal Technologies portal.

Because the Appellate Default clock is ticking, I cannot wait for the Clerk's queue to clear.

I am asking for two things today:

1. Permission to screen-share the Notice of Default so the Court can verify the emergency.
2. An Order Shortening Time to hear my Petition for Removal later this week, before the dismissal becomes final."

SCENARIO B: "THIS IS NOT AN EMERGENCY" (THE PUSHBACK)

JUDGE: "Failure to pay a fee is a procedural issue, Mr. Jones. Why is this an Ex Parte emergency?"

YOU:

"Because, Your Honor, an Administrative Dismissal in the Court of Appeal is effectively a 'Death Penalty' sanction for the Estate's litigation.

Every day that passes without a 'Cure' signals to the Appellate Court that the Estate has abandoned its claims.

The Administrator has refused to act. If the Court does not intervene pendente lite, the Estate loses its standing permanently. That is the definition of irreparable harm."

SCENARIO C: "COME BACK LATER" (THE DELAY)

JUDGE: "I need to see the file first. Come back when it's processed."

YOU:

"I understand, Your Honor.

For the record: I am appearing today, Feb 11, to put the Court and the Administrator on notice of this Default.

If any Estate funds are dissipated by the Administrator between now and when the Clerk processes my file, I will be amending my petition to include those amounts as Surcharge Damages against the Administrator personally.

When may I return to check on the status?"

THE "EXIT" STRATEGY

IF GRANTED: "Thank you, Your Honor. I will serve the Order Shortening Time immediately."

IF DENIED/DELAYED: "Understood. I have made my record. Thank you."

CRITICAL REMINDER:

- DO NOT mention the Red Tag/Electrician. That is for 12:00 PM.
- DO NOT mention the "Tuesday/Wednesday" confusion. Just say "I filed Monday."
- KEEP IT SHORT. You have 60 seconds to make them care about the Appeal.

Good luck. You are on the right day now.
